125 employees, with that dropping to 100 during the off season.

Montgomery concluded his update on the resort by noting the construction site has been experiencing a number of sightseers - which creates potential safety problems. He said that they would be holding Sunday open houses for the public when work wasn't under way and asked that local residents wait until then to visit the site.

The docks at the resort will offer 50 boat slips that can handle watercraft from 14 to 54 feet in length.
