

Corporate Homes Plus

An older person lives with up to five persons in a residential home setting which is staffed 24 hours per day by employees of the corporate owner.

Additional Housing Options

Board & Lodging

A housing arrangement with individual bedrooms and shared living space that offers housekeeping and meals. No medical supervision is provided.

Cooperative Ownership Housing

Offers co-ownership and operation of a housing project by those who live in it. Each cooperative member is given exclusive right to occupy a specific apartment.

Family Homes Plus

An older person moves into a family home and lives with the Homes Plus family. There can be up to five older persons living in the setting, provided the home can meet all of the licensing requirements. If serious or persistent mental illness and/or developmental disability exist, the limit is four persons.

Nursing Homes

Certified facilities which provide 24 hour per day skilled nursing care.

Senior Apartments

Independent living units, which are subsidized or market rate rental. Some apartments may offer meals, housekeeping, transportation, and planned special activities.

Share-A-Home

Older homeowners offer housing in exchange for rent and/or help with household tasks.
