Originally of Oaxaca, Mexico, Enrique Cabrera moved to Port Arthur with his family at the age of 18.

He is active in his church, Centro Cristiano Roca de los Siglos, located at 5328 Gulfway Drive in Port Arthur. For several years, he has worked as a youth pastor and helped in the community supporting different non-profit institutions such as Otra Onda Youth Wave. He has volunteered with "pro-education rallies" with Tom Noyola of the Lamar Institute of Technology.

In the summer of 2006, Enrique and Ramón "Moncho" Canizales, a well known musician in the Spanish Christian music scene, launched QueBuya Records. QueBuya is a production company dedicated to promoting new values in Christian music. Not only do they produce music with positive messages, Enrique and Ramon also stage events designed especially for young people, like conferences, concerts, and festivals.

QueBuya Records released its first record, "Libre" which means "free," by Enrique Cabrera. This album is a collection of songs written about his ministry compiled in a CD. It is an album with the pleasant sound of pop-rock, with acoustic guitars predominating. The songs of praise and worship are inspired by the freedom that Cabrera has found in Jesus.

Even with his busy schedule, Enrique is an associate pastor, a youth minister, and a worship leader at Centro Cristiano Roca de los Siglos. For more information visit:
