

another. If you do this you're just asking for a negative result.

#5 Educate yourself, be aware what makes the person of the opposite sex tick.

Guys and Girls work differently. If you become aware of these things, you can help to refrain from them. Obviously guys are aroused by the way a woman fixes her hair, the way she smells, and most importantly the way she dresses. Women are aroused by the way a man looks at her, talks to her, the way he smells and more. If we are aware of these facts we can be more cautious on how to prevent them.

Abstaining from sexual contact until marriage will make your marriage very special and very exciting. The special gift that you will be able to offer your husband or wife on your wedding day is priceless. You husband or wife will no doubt view it as the most special gift that you could ever offer them. Following through with this command will ensure God's blessing on your marriage, because it pleases him to see his children do what he has commanded. With God's blessing on your marriage you will experience happiness that you could have never imagined. The bond that you and your husband or wife share is special. Don't bring to your marriage a wilted rose, but rather a beautiful, blooming desirable rose that will be appreciated.

Editors Note: Dawn and her husband Joshua stayed sexually pure in their relationship to one another until their wedding day. On their wedding day, Dawn presented Joshua with a white rose as a symbol of her purity.

All scripture is taken from the King James Version Bible.

If you would like to have Dawn speak to your youth group or young adults concerning abstinence and the importance of purity call The Times-Tribune 606-528-2464 ext. 12.
