sam says...

I'm General Sam Houston, a Texas legend and the unofficial mascot of Huntsville, Texas. I've lived around these parts for a while now, retiring here after being a U.S. Senator, President of the Republic of Texas, a General in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, and the only man in history to be governor of two states. The good people of Huntsville like me so much, they built a statue in my honor that stands as a welcome to all who pass by our town on Interstate 45 in 1994. My good friend David Adickes designed it, and the people of Huntsville raised the funds to build the base where I stand. I'm 67 feet tall, which is about the height I was in real life, at least depending on who you talk to. Be sure to come and visit me during your stay. We're glad you chose to come and live with us. Have any questions? Don't hesitate to ask. See you around. Hope you love Huntsville as much as I do!

I'LL GIVE YOU TIPS THROUGHOUT THE BOOK. JUST LOOK FOR ME!
