A great way to Guaranteed!

Let's face it: sometimes it's more fun to YouTube in public. Plus, the cable guy isn't always the most reliable.

So, for that in-limbo e-mail.

Luckily, Huntsville has places throughout to log in wirelessly.

Check with your computer vendor to see if you have a wireless card installed in your laptop. If not, a quick trek to Office Depot or Wal-Mart - and $50 or so - will get you wired in without wires.
