GAME DAY RULES

1. Employees of the Pauls Valley Daily Democrat and their immediate families are not eligible to play the contest.

2. All entries must be in the Pauls Valley Daily Democrat office, 108 S. Willow, no later than 4:30 p.m. Friday of the contest week.

3. Only one entry per person. Photo copies of the entry form WILL NOT be accepted. E-mail entries WILL NOT be accepted.

4. Weekly winners will be announced in the Pauls Valley Daily Democrat. The contestant with the most correct picks will receive $75.00 cash. Prize money must be picked up at the Daily Democrat office. Due to IRS and federal regulations, a winner may have to complete a W-9 form in order to claim prize money.

5. A CONTESTANT MAY WIN ONLY ONCE DURING THE CONTEST PERIOD.

6. In the event of a tie, the winning contestant will be chosen based on the tie breaker questions. The total points scored will be the first tie breaker and if they are tied on that then total offensive yards will be used. If both tiebreakers are the same, the prize money will be split equally between the winners.

7. If the winner has correctly identified the location of the "Secret Football" within the pages of the issue of Game Day, the winner will also win an additional $25.00. The location of the "Secret Football" may be anywhere inside each issue and could be hidden in advertising, photographs or stories.

8. Official entry forms are available at the Pauls Valley Daily Democrat, 108 S. Willow, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Forms may be mailed to
