Spectators are welcome for the takeoff of the "World's Toughest Canoe Race" race at Aquarena Center.

A Texas tradition since 1963, the Water Safari is 260 miles of grueling, nonstop paddling from San Marcos to Seadrift.

Rio Vista Falls (pictured above) is a favorite spot for fans to cheer on their team. Others gather at Spring Lake for the race's start.

Join the fun and help the local chapter of Habitat for Humanity build a house this summer.

43) Jump Out of an Airplane

Skydive San Marcos
Fentress Airpark
(512) 488-2214
skydivesanmarcos.com

Open every Saturday and Sunday 9 a.m. to sunset, and weekdays by appointment only.

An experience you'll never forget! With tandem skydiving, the training only takes 30 minutes and an instructor goes along with you to make your jump safe and enjoyable. In tandem skydiving you wear a special harness and are physically attached to the instructor before you leave the aircraft.

Together, you experience a 30-second free fall and a five minute parachute ride. The instructor will give you hands-on training and assist you in flying the parachute down for a nice soft landing.
